3. Our Service

3.1. Helping you to decide

We source and arrange products but do not offer advice or make personal recommendations when arranging your insurance or premium finance. However, we may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products on which we will provide details; you will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

As we do not advise or recommend any insurance or premium finance product by agreeing to our terms and using “the INSHUR App” you agree that you are (a) making a choice about how to proceed; and (b) checking the suitability of an insurance and premium finance product, if selected, which will meet your needs.

3.2. The capacity in which we act

3.2.1. INSHUR provides an insurance intermediation and credit broking service through a web application (“the INSHUR App”). Individuals (“you” or “your”) who register and use the INSHUR App and understand and agree to these Terms of Business understand that INSHUR is an intermediary and not an insurer, underwriter or credit company.

3.2.2. INSHUR act for and on behalf of the insurer and credit company when sourcing, distributing and arranging insurance and premium finance cover.

3.2.3. We have entered into sole and exclusive contractual agency relationships with one insurer and one credit company for each product available. We will give you further information about this before we finalise your insurance and premium finance contract option, confirming who would be the insurer and credit company for the product you have chosen.

3.2.4. INSHUR is a wholly owned subsidiary of INSHUR Holding Corp a Delaware company.

3.3. Complaints and compensation

3.3.1. It is our intention to provide you with an exceptional level of customer service at all times, however, should you be unhappy with “the INSHUR App” or have any cause for dissatisfaction we have a formal complaints procedure:

- iii. Complaints that take longer than 3 business days to resolve:

If we have not been able to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 3 business days, we will keep you updated with progress and will provide you with a decision as quickly as possible.

- iv. Next steps if you are still unhappy:

If you are not happy with the outcome of your complaint, you may be able to ask the Financial Ombudsman Service to review your case. You will need to contact them within 6 months of the date of which your complaint was closed.

You can also ask the ombudsman to review your case if you have not received a final decision within 8 weeks of us receiving your complaint. The service they provide is free and impartial. They can be contacted as follows:

3.3.2. We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) for our insurance distribution activities. You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we cannot meet our obligations. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. If you are eligible to claim from the FSCS, compensation is available in relation to insurance advising and arranging as follows:

- i. 90% of the claim, without any upper limit; and
- ii. 100% of the claim without any upper limit for:
 - compulsory classes of insurance (such as Third-Party Motor or Employers Liability); and
 - pure protection' contracts, professional indemnity insurance, and general insurance claims arising from the death or incapacity of the policyholder owing to injury, sickness or infirmity, all where the insurance intermediary has failed to pay money to an insurer, pay away money it has received from an insurer, or has failed to take steps to allow the insurer to effect the contract of insurance.

Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS on 0800 678 1100 (Freephone) or 020 7741 4100 or www.fscs.org.uk.

- 3.4.8. Documentations are provided in an electronic format. Please contact us by emailing help@inshur.com or calling us on 0345 340 5535 if you would like us to send you paper copies, which are available in the first instance free of charge.
- 3.4.9. We provide you with the services you have requested, for example a quote or an insurance policy. When you take out a policy, we will continue your policy and provide you information in relation to it and each renewal until you or we cancel the policy. For your protection, following your renewal quote, if we do not receive your instructions to cancel the policy from the renewal date, we may, where available, automatically renew* your policy and any connected premium finance and continue to provide you with insurance cover. You will then be liable for any premiums that fall due.

3.5. Payment for our services

- 3.5.1. The payment we receive in respect of your insurance policy will be any fees we charge you and/or commission from insurers. Where we charge a fee for our services, we will always inform you of any such charge before you purchase an insurance policy.

3.5.2. When we sell you a policy the insurer pays us a percentage commission from the total premium. If the type of policy we sell reaches specific profit targets the insurer may also pay us an additional bonus. Where a premium finance contract is entered into the credit company will pay us a percentage of the amount of total premium. You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding the amount of remuneration we have received as a result of arranging your insurance policy, premium finance, together with a breakdown of costs.

- iii. By accepting the terms of a policy, you will be agreeing to pay the costs associated for the acceptance of the Policy (the premium and any Fees).

3.5.4. Paying for policies:

- i. You are responsible for paying the full policy premium amounts up front by debit or credit card unless premium finance cover is taken out, in which case the payment terms of the premium finance contract apply.
- ii. You are responsible for paying any fees chargeable by debit or credit card at the point they become due or we advise they are due to be paid. We may where applicable and at our discretion deduct a fee from any premium/deposit refund due to you (unless a claim has been made).

3.5.6. Fees and Charges:

- i. We like to be completely upfront about the fees and charges for our services. Our fees are separate to any insurance premium charges applied, for example, if your insurance premium increases because you have changed your car/van/or moved home.

3.6. Handling money

- 3.6.1. We act as agents of the insurer in collecting premiums and handling refunds to clients. We have entered into a written agreement with all insurers that we deal with that all premiums you pay to us are held on trust as an agent of the insurer. In accordance with this agreement, premiums are treated as being received by the insurer when received into the insurers designated trust bank account and any premium refund is treated as received by you when it is actually paid over to you.
- 3.6.2. The relevant insurer for a policy carries the risk for any losses which may arise in the event of any winding up, liquidation, administration or insolvency of INSHUR.
- 3.6.3. From time to time we may work with third parties (credit companies) to offer you the ability to pay for premiums in instalments depending on the nature of the policy. In this instance, the terms and conditions of the relevant credit company will apply and we may assist the credit company.

3.7. Ending the business relationship

- 3.7.1. Subject to your immediate settlement of any outstanding premiums and fees, you may notify us that you no longer wish to do business with us and we will not impose a penalty. Notification must be clear and will be taken into immediate effect.

- 3.7.2. In circumstances where we feel we cannot continue providing services to you, we will contact you and attempt to rectify the situation on no less than two occasions.
- 3.7.3. In situations where the situation is not rectifiable we will inform you of our decision to end the business relationship and this will wind down during a discussed time frame dependent on the reason for termination.
- 3.7.4. Business will not be terminated without first informing you, the policyholder of the valid reason for termination.
- 3.7.5. Valid reasons for termination may include but are not limited to:
- i. non-payment of premium or fees
 - ii. failure to provide requested documentation or information
 - iii. deliberate failure to comply with terms set out within the Terms of Business, insurer's or other relevant documentation
 - iv. deliberate misrepresentation or non-disclosure or attempted fraud
 - v. use of threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or intimidation or bullying of our staff / suppliers.
- 3.7.6. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, if our relationship ends, any transactions previously initiated will be completed according to these Terms of Business.
- 3.7.7. You will be liable to pay for any transactions concluded prior to the end of our relationship

3.8. Your responsibilities

- 3.8.1. You have a duty to give a fair presentation of risk to the insurer and - if applicable - to the credit company. This means that you should disclose every material circumstance relevant to the risk being insured following a reasonable search within your business to identify and verify such information.
- 3.8.2. This should include information which you and, where applicable, your senior management, persons responsible for arranging your insurance or other relevant third parties know or ought to know and should include all information that would influence the judgement of the insurer or credit company or that would put the insurer or credit company on notice that it needs to make further enquiries.
- 3.8.3. Examples of material circumstances are:
- i. Special or unusual circumstances relating to the risk;

- ii. Any particular concerns which led you to seek insurance cover for the risk; and
 - iii. Anything which those concerned with the class of insurance and field of activity in question would generally understand as being something that would be dealt with in a fair presentation of risks for this type of insurance.
- 3.8.4. The information must be presented in a way which would be reasonably clear and accessible to a prudent insurer or credit company. If you are unsure whether to disclose any information you should contact us. You need to take into account the size and complexity of your business, and allow yourself sufficient time before your renewal date to consider and / or assess your requirements.
- 3.8.5. Failure to provide a 'fair representation' may result in a number of remedies by the insurer or credit company. If the breach was deliberate or reckless the insurer or credit company can void the contract and keep the premium or in the case of premium finance reclaim the premium. If the breach was not deliberate or reckless the insurer can void the contract, proportionately reduce a claim settlement or amend the insurance policy terms and conditions then review the merits of a claim on this basis.
- 3.8.6. You should always provide complete and accurate information to us when we ask you about the insurance risks your business faces before taking out a policy, at renewal and throughout the life of the policy. This also applies to your responses in relation to any assumptions you may agree to in the process of applying for insurance cover.
- 3.8.7. It is important that you read all insurance and any other documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply. Particular attention must be paid to any warranties and conditions as failure to comply with them could invalidate your policy or mean that claims may not be paid.
- 3.8.8. You must inform us immediately of any changes in circumstances which may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy. You must notify us of any changes to your circumstances (including, but not limited to, any motoring or criminal convictions or vehicle modifications) through "the INSHUR App" and in the event it is not possible to update us with your information through "the INSHUR App", you should contact us by telephone (using the number on the website) or by emailing us at help@inshur.com. If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us for guidance.
